CONTENTS VOLUME 6, 1991/1992

Research papers
Compositional modeling of interfacial tension effects in miscible displacement processes
S. Betté, K.J. Hartman (Dallas, Tex., USA) and R.F. Heinemann (Fairfax, Va., USA) 1
Instability theory for immiscible displacements in tubular systems
C. Chakrabarty and R.G. Bentsen (Edmonton, Alta., Canada) 15
Stability of adjacent boreholes
B.S. Aadnoy and T.S. Froitland (Stavanger, Norway) 37
Casing point selection at shallow depth
B.S. Aadnoy, T. Soteland and B. Ellingsen (Stavanger, Norway) 45
Effects of reservoir depletion on borehole stability
B.S. Aadnoy (Stavanger, Norway) 57
Dual surfactant systems for enhanced oil recovery at high salinities
D.J. Miller, S.-P. von Halasz, M. Schmidt, A. Holst (Frankfurt, Germany) and G. Pusch (Clausthal-Zellerfeld, Germany) 63
Relative permeability restoration using primary alcohols
M.M. El-Gassier, A.E. Omar, A.S. Dahab and H. Awad-el-Kariem (Riyadh, Saudi-Arabia) 73
Electrochemical activity of shaly sands
G.G. Tenchov (Sofia, Bulgaria) 81

Book reviews
Hydraulic Proppant Fracturing and Gravel Packing, by D. Mader — Th. van Golf Racht 91

Announcements 93

Research papers
Environmental hazards of urban oilfield operations
B. Endres, G.V. Chilingarian and T.F. Yen (Los Angeles, Calif., USA) 95
Adsorption I. Competitive static adsorption of mixtures of ethoxylated surfactants onto kaolinite and quartz
T. Austad, T. Løvereide, K. Olsvik, T.A. Rolfsvåg and G. Staurland (Stavanger, Norway) 107
Adsorption II. Nonequilibrium adsorption of surfactants onto three reservoir cores from the Norwegian Continental Shelf. The effects of clay minerals
T. Austad, P.A. Bjørkum and T.A. Rolfsvåg (Stavanger, Norway) 125
Adsorption III. Nonequilibrium adsorption of surfactants onto reservoir cores from the North Sea. The effects of oil and clay minerals
T. Austad, P.A. Bjørkum, T.A. Rolfsvåg and K.B. Øysæd (Stavanger, Norway) 137
Rheological characteristics of Saudi crude oil emulsions
A.E. Omar, S.M. Desouky and B. Karama (Riyadh, Saudi Arabia) 149
Application of mass balance of kick fluid in well control
J.A. Ajienka (Port Harcourt, Nigeria) and O.O. Owolabi (University Park, Pa., USA) 161
Present status of EOR in the Chinese petroleum industry and its future
Cheng-zhi Yang and Da-kuang Han (Beijing, China) 175

Announcements 191

Research papers
Evaluation of surfactants from oxidized hydrocarbons in enhanced oil recovery
H. Huang (Hubei, China), W.H. Conellan, III and J.H. Jones (University Park, Pa., USA) 193
Pressure losses across gravel packs
T. Yildiz and J.P. Langlinais (Baton Rouge, La., USA) 201
Adsorption/desorption of polymers from Saudi Arabian limestone
M.S. Celik (Istanbul, Turkey), S. Ahmad (Islamabad, Pakistan) and H.S. Al-Hashim (Dhahran, Saudi Arabia) 213
Role of polar compounds in crude oils on rock wettability
M.H. Sayyouh, A.M. Hemeida, M.S. Al-Blehed and S.M. Desouky (Riyadh, Saudi Arabia) 225

A study on the supercompressibility and compressibility factors of natural gas mixtures
Q. Li and T.-M. Guo (Beijing, China) 235
Characteristics of capillary pressure curves
E.C. Donaldson (Norman, Okla., USA), N. Ewall (Monroeville, Pa., USA) and B. Singh (Santa Rosa, Calif., USA) 249

Announcements 263

Research papers
Adsorption IV. An evaluation of polyethylene glycol as a sacrificial adsorbate towards ethoxylated sulfonates in chemical flooding
T. Austad, O. Rørvik, T.A. Rolfsvåg and K.B. Øysæd (Stavanger, Norway) 265
Adsorption V. Nonequilibrium competitive adsorption of polydisperse ethoxylated sulfonates onto clay-containing cores and kaolinite
T. Austad, I. Fjelde and T.A. Rolfsvåg (Stavanger, Norway) 277
A mixing rule approach for predicting the viscosity of CO_2-saturated Cold Lake bitumen and bitumen fractions
A.K. Mehrotra (Calgary, Alta., Canada) 289
Styles of heterogeneity in dolomitized platform carbonate reservoirs: Examples from the Central Basin Platform of the Permian Basin, southwestern USA
N. Tyler, R.P. Major, D.G. Bebout, C. Kerans, F.J. Lucia, S.C. Ruppel and M.H. Holtz (Austin, Tex., USA) 301
Time factor in mathematical models of geologic and technical processes
L.A. Buryakovskiy (Katy, Tex., USA) and G.V. Chilingarian (Los Angeles, Calif., USA) 341
The effect of additives and temperature on the flow behavior of sodium bentonite suspensions
P.K. Singh, V.P. Sharma (Dhanbad, India), R. Caenn (Irvine, Calif., USA) and G.V. Chilingarian (Los Angeles, Calif., USA) 349
The significance of formation damage caused by the adsorption oil-based mud surfactant
J.A. McDonald and D.C. Buller (Sunbury-on-Thames, UK) 357
New scaling criteria for in-situ combustion experiments
M.R. Islam (Calgary, Alta., Canada) and S.M. Farouq Ali (Edmonton, Alta., Canada) 367
Recovery of residual oil using the alkali/surfactant/polymer process: effect of alkali concentration
H.A. Nasr-El-Din, B.F. Hawkins and K.A. Green (Calgary, Alta., Canada) 381
Formation damage effects due to salinity, temperature and pressure in sandstone reservoirs as indicated by relative permeability measurements
A.S. Dahab, A.E. Omar, M.M. El-Gassier and H.A. El Kariem (Riyadh, Saudi Arabia) 403

Book review
Carbonate Diagenesis and Porosity, by B.C.H. Moore — G.R. Orme 413

Announcement 415
